

Cole Bailey Vineyards

2004 CABERNET SESQUIPEDALIAN

FRUIT: From Redwood Valley in Mendocino County. Planted on steep terraces with apanoramic view of the Valley

APPELLATION: Mendocino, California

VINEYARDS: 4 acres in Redwood Valley

EXPOSURE: Vineyard ranges in elevation from 1000-2000 feet; vertical shoot positioning, careful canopy management for optimal sun exposure to the fruit; exposure allows the development of complex flavors

VARIETAL CONTENT: 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 6% Petit Verdot, 3% Malbec and 2% Merlot

TASTING NOTES: A dark, red elegant wine with a deep berry nose -- featuring rich, toasty oak notes and mouth filling tannins; lovely weight and texture.

TYPE OF OAK: 50% new French, 50% old composed of 95% French and 5% American

ALCOHOL: 14.2%

TA: 0.59 g/100 ml

PH: 3.66

CASES PRODUCED: 420 cases

SUGGESTED RETAIL PRICE: $30.00

HOW TO BUY: www.colebailey.com or at select restaurants and retailers

THE NAME: Sesquipedalian means having a tendency to use long, multi-syllabic words, usually unnecessarily.

Cole Bailey Vineyards, 1482 Inez Way, Redwood Valley, CA 95470

(707) 485-9507 (ph), (707) 485-1704 (fax), email: jmalloy@colebailey.com
